ROUNDING UP INSURGENTS

A War Department Statement of Captures and Surrenders.Compilation of Reports Covering a Period Up to April 17—Published as Evidence of the Disintegration of the Trouble in the Philippines.

The War Department has compiled a list of the captures and surrenders of insurgents, tending to show the disintegration of the insurrection in the Philippines. The list shows the total number of insurgents who have been taken by the Americans since the outbreak of the trouble and names those leaders who have surrendered or been taken prisoners by capture since the beginning of the present year, with their rank in the insurgent army, the number of men with each, and the places where they were taken.

The most important capture made of course was that of Aguinaldo, the leader of the insurrection, who, with two of his staff officers, was surprised and captured at Palanan, Province of Isabela, by Macabulo scout under Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston, U. S. Volunteers, on March 22.

The compilation of reports covers the period up to April 17. Up to January 1, 1901, the total number of insurgents captured or surrendered was 21,497, together with 5,078 rifles, 56 field pieces, something over 3,000 shells and balls, 53,360 rounds of ammunition, and 19 tons of powder. From January 1 to April 17 the number of captures included 24 officers, 2,439 men; the number surrendered was 820 officers, 6,922 men; making a total of 1,067 officers, 9,361 men; or a grand total up to that date of 31,564 insurgents captured or surrendered. To this is to be added 1,398 rifles captured, 4,300 surrendered, a total of 6,238; 4,500 rounds of ammunition, 45 boxes, and 21 pieces of cannon.
